the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the United Kingdom (Meltzer 1996). The prevalence of schizophrenia in the United Kingdom is estimated to be 1.2% (Meltzer 1996).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the lives of people with mental health problems. The United Kingdom has a long history of institutional care, but in the 1990s there has been a move towards community care. The Mental Health Act 1983 (MHA) was amended in 1995 to give more power to local authorities to provide community care services. The MHA 1995 also introduced the concept of 'community treatment orders' (CTOs), which allow people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia to be treated in the community rather than in hospital. This has led to a growing number of people with schizophrenia being treated in the community.

To help everyone catch the spirit of the homecoming football game, the drama class performed a review. The review included skits about how great it is to be a Warrior fan. Coach Voris, dressed in full Indian headdress, accompanied his team on stage and inspired the student body with his pep talk.

Thursday also included a powder puff football game. The senior and sophomore girls proved to be the victors in the entertaining afternoon game.

The pep block shows support for their boys basketball team. More signs of spirit ... Elana Flores, Chrissy Gallagher, and Mike Colson decorate Mr. Traicoff's room.

MACBETH REVISITED

Ms. McCray's senior honors English classes read Macbeth every year. This year they added a personal touch to the Shakespeare play: they acted out scenes. No two groups in the same class were to re-enact the same scene. With all the appropriate costumes, the seniors pulled off Macbeth at its best.

George Montgomery gives a look of surprise as Rick Fite prepares to stab him. Lisa Amos reads a message intended for Lady Macbeth. Eliza Ibarra delivers her soliloquy.

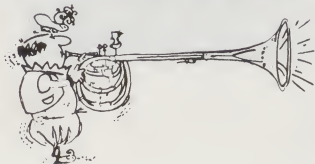

Tony Lomelin stabs Banquo as the two hired murderers look on. Dan Stadt and Mike Grant portray Macbeth and Lady Macbeth. George Montgomery and Rick Fite partake in a sword fight as part of their scene. Eliza Ibarra continues with her soliloquy.

BAND WORKS HARD

The members of the CHS band were kept busy throughout the year. From the beginning of school they were in charge of providing pre-game and half-time performances at all home football games. During the winter, the band provided pep at all home basketball games. And in the spring the band worked hard to perfect their sound for their annual spring concert, not to mention all the time needed to rehearse for band contests throughout the state. Each member contributed valuable sound for the proud CHS band.

A DAY AT WRIGLEY FIELD

Ms. Payne decided this would be a good year to take her fifth and sixth hour classes to a Cubs baseball game; so, on April 26, 1989 she did just that. The classes were comprised of mainly freshmen and seniors. Ms. Payne also invited Ms. Green's yearbook staff to go along. In all, fifty people from CHS attended the Cubs game. Everyone was excited to see the Cubs battle the world champion Dodgers. The Dodgers won the game 4-3, but the trip was well worth it.

Signs were made and displayed for the television cameras during the seventh inning stretch: GO CUBS! Karen Wheatly displays her excitement about being at the game. Kim Kasarda tells a classmate about the ball Andre Dawson threw to her that a stranger stole, as her friends listen to another account of the story.

MRS. SAJDA: TEACHER OF THE YEAR

Mrs. Barbara Sajda was elected Teacher of the Year by her peers at Calumet High School. She attended Union University in Jackson, Tennessee, where she received her BA degree. She went on to Purdue University where she received her MS degree. Mrs. Sajda has been teaching at Calumet High School for twenty-three years.

Twenty new members were accepted into the organization, including fourteen freshmen. Part of the banquet was the traditional lighting of the candles to symbolize the light of knowledge. To become a member of NHS, a student needs to achieve and maintain a 3.0 grade point average.

Ms. Yatsko welcomes students and parents to the 1989 induction of new NHS members. Michelle Ferguson sings "One Moment in Time" for the new members. A look at the new NHS members with their burning candles of knowledge. Tony Lomelin delivers an inspirational speech to the new members.

MAKE IT LAST FOREVER

Turnabout is the traditional Christmas dance. It has been held annually since 1969. This year's turnabout was sponsored by the band boosters. Many students enjoyed dancing to music provided by an area DJ. The theme for turnabout, "Make It Last Forever," was appropriate as many students did not want to leave. The traditional dance is the girl's opportunity to ask the boy to the dance, thus the name "Turnabout."

a. Karen Harper enjoys her dance with John Wood. Shannon Hurley dances with her date during a slow song. Isabel Vibanco and her date take a breather between dances.

DRAMA PERFORMS COMEDY SKITS

The Drama Club performed comedy skits in the tradition of the old Carol Burnett show. There were fifteen skits about different situations in life. A few of the skits involved married couples, the elderly, etc. The comedy skit format allowed many students to shine as stars in their own skit. Not one student was the sole star of the show. However, as in the past, seniors Dianne Bogdan, Dan Stadt, and Shane Lowden did a fine job, as did the other members of the cast.

a. Is this a prediction of the future for Dianne Bogdan and Dan Stadt? b. Shane Lowden displays his love of nature by 'stomping through the tulips.' c. Dianne Bogdan adds last minute touches to her make-up.

a. Senior Lois Tucker gets frustrated as senior Mike Grant tries to give her tips on acting. b. Junior Lale Johnson tries to collect money from seniors Brian Ward and Mike Badja back stage.

Students were awarded for academic achievements, honors program achievements, and, as in the past, gag awards. Teachers from the honors program presented awards to the senior who has excelled in many areas. The gag awards were voted on by the entire senior class. An award appropriate to each gag was given to each recipient.

JUNIOR VARSITY AND FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Lack of numbers hurt the Warriors. With the lack of numbers on a football field a team is helpless. One good example is the Warriors J.V. and Freshman Football teams. The Junior Varsity ended their season with 9 and 6 record and the freshmen won two games, lost two games and tied another. One thing about the Warriors is that they never quit. Even with the lack of numbers the people that stay with it are still winners in many peoples' hearts.

JV VOLLEYBALL STRUGGLES THROUGH SEASON

The Calumet varsity tennis team ended its season with an 0-15 record and were ousted by the Lake Central Indians in the first round of sectional play. If there was a bright side to the season it was Most Valuable Player Dale Rader. He finished the season with a 6-9 record and was the leader of the team.

Coach Gobbie went into the season with the idea that whether they won or lost, they were just going to have fun. With the lack of experience they had on the team this year, the Warriors used the season to build for the future.

CLOSING

Shannon Hurley, Beth Stasko, Chrissy Gallagher, and Laurie Noeson work on decorations for spirit week. David Lindel thinks he has too much work piled up to get it all finished on time. Stacy Rohr keeps the balls from her court by playing aggressively at the net. Tony Lomelin accepts his acceptance into the academy with pride.

First year coach Karen Markovitch confers with her team about the upcoming match. Danny Wachowski demonstrates his working ability. Eric Ward and Corey Wabington exchange ideas about the assignment. He appears to be safe on this play at the plate.

Dianna Solis manages a wave to family members as her classmates look on. Dianne Bogdan and Dan Stadt perform during the spring play. Terrence Russell displays his hurdling ability. Kelin Mark gets off a jump shot.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has become a major employer in the UK, and its growth has been a major factor in the overall growth of the economy.

The public sector has also become a major employer of women. In 1980, women made up 40% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 50%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of women in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.

The public sector has also become a major employer of people with disabilities. In 1980, people with disabilities made up 1% of the public sector workforce, and by 1995, this figure had risen to 3%. This increase has been driven by a number of factors, including the growth of the public sector, the increasing participation of people with disabilities in the workforce, and the increasing demand for public services.
